MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: DJUICH, Momcilo Vojvoda

Subject, who is wanted by the Yugoslav Government as a War Criminal, has been reported to be a close collaborator of Dobrosav Jevdjevic in Italy, where in early 1947 the two were engaged in editing Bratke Novine, which followed a pan-Serbian and anti-Croatian line. At that time a generally reliable source stated that the two were in contact with the Italian anti-Communist underground in Rome; that they controlled a more or less complete net of informants and propagandists in Italy; that they had bases in Greece, Albania, and Bulgaria, and a channel into Slovenia through Trieste. In August 1948 subject reportedly was in Paris where he was attempting to organize a central Ravna Gora Committee and was engaged in editing a newspaper. (Comment: For further identity of Jevdjevic, referred to in the above, see memo on Miladen Zujovic.)
